

Looking for New Summer Activities?

Remember that Bath Housing residents are eligible to apply for free Bath YMCA memberships for the entire household! Visit www.bathymca.org or call 443-4112 for more information on the available facilities and activities for family members of all ages. The Y is located at 303 Centre Street. If you are interested in a membership application (very quick and easy), just let Kristen know.

Introducing Spoonful!

Spoonful is a new food and nutrition blog offered by the University of Maine Cooperative Extension. It offers bite-sized posts on recipes, food preservation, grocery shopping on a budget, food safety, health tips and more. Search for Spoonful on the UMaine Cooperative Extension site (extension.umaine.edu), where you can also subscribe.

The IRS recently mailed letters to families who, based on tax returns, may be eligible to start receiving monthly Child Tax Credits this month. The payment will be up to $300/month for each qualifying child under 6 and up to $250/month for each qualifying child aged 6-17. Go to www.irs.gov/credits-deductions/advance-child-tax-credit-payments-in-2021 for more information, view eligibility, view advance payments, unenroll from payments or to enter information if you are not required to file tax return.

The Patten Free Library is offering summer reading incentive for young adults. Earn a $10 Gift of Bath card for completing the first summer reading log and an entry in the end of summer raffle for $25 Gift of Bath cards with each completed log. Visit the Information Desk in the Reference Room to get a brand new Young Adult book for free and pick up a summer reading log.

Are you tired of telemarketing calls? Register your home or mobile phone number on the National Do Not Call Registry for free. For more information on what kinds of calls will and will not be allowed after you register, go to www.donotcall.gov. You can add your numbers to the Registry via the website or by phone at 1-888-382-1222.

Family Scuttlebutt

As the COVID-19 landscape continues to improve, we are excited to return to a monthly Scuttlebutt! We are also thrilled to welcome Matt Thompson and Craig Kline to the Bath Housing Maintenance team.

Matt has been managing the Portland Food Co-op for 6 years. He has a degree from Red Rocks Community College with a focus on woodworking and has experience with maintenance and landscaping. He loves working on his house & land, enjoying all nature has to offer, and helping to build community.

Craig joins the team with years of experience in plumbing, electrical and carpentry, with extensive experience in maintenance and home repair. Craig enjoys problem-solving and fixing and is eager to bring his experience to the team and Bath Housing.

Would you like to learn more about our new national holiday?

Juneteenth celebrates the end to slavery in the United States. The Patten Free Library has put together a variety of materials as well as staff reviews. Visit the library or library website for lots of Juneteenth resources.

Stay tuned for a OneCall update about August BBQ responses!

Be sure to take a look at the attached flyer with summer heat tips.

Our office will be closed on Monday, July 5 in observance of Independence Day. See the attached listing for lots of fun and free 4th of July activities in Bath!
